provide requisite information about his / her Relatives and all firms, companies, body corporates, or other association of individuals, in which such promoter, director or KMP is interested, whether directly or indirectly, to the Company or the subsidiary/ Joint venture (as the case may be). Every such promoter, director and KMP shall also provide any additional information about the transaction that the Board /Audit Committee may reasonably request.

Based on the above, all the related party transactions entered into during each quarter shall be put up to the Audit Committee and Board along with Quarterly/Annual Accounts.

6 MATERIALITY OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

6.1 Materiality threshold of RPT

A transaction with related party shall be considered material only if the transactions(s) exceed the prescribed limit as defined under sub-regulation (1) and (1A) of regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations. Any other threshold limits / amendment to the aforementioned threshold limits as may be prescribed under the Listing Regulations or Companies Act, 2013 from time to time shall be applicable.

6.2 Approval for Material Related Party Transactions

All "Material Related Party Transactions" shall require prior approval of the shareholders of the Company through a resolution. No related party shall vote to approve such resolutions whether the entity is a related party to the particular transaction or not.

Proposal for entering into Material Related Party Transaction shall be placed before the Audit Committee with relevant details and after the approval from the Audit Committee and the Board, such proposal shall be referred for approval of the shareholders through resolution.

7 REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

7.1 Audit Committee

1. Subject to the omnibus approval process referred to under Regulation 23 of LODR Regulations and hereunder, all Related Party Transactions shall require the prior approval of the Audit Committee.
2. Accordingly,
 - a) Prior to the commencement of each financial year, the Audit Committee shall meet to consider the Related Party Transactions of NOUVEAU for the financial year; and
 - b) During the financial year, if any Related Party Transaction is proposed to be entered, the Audit Committee shall consider the approval of the said Related Party Transaction at the relevant time.
3. While considering the Related Party Transactions, the Audit Committee shall consider, inter-alia, on the following factors:
 - a. Name of the Party and details explaining nature of relationship;
 - b. Duration of the contract and particulars of the contract and arrangement;
 - c. Nature of transaction and material terms thereof including the value, if any;
 - d. Whether the terms of the Related Party Transaction are fair and on arms' length basis and would apply on the same basis if the transaction did not involve a Related Party;
 - e. Details as may be necessary to review as per the provisions of the Listing Regulations and Companies Act, 2013 etc.
4. After reviewing such information and after seeking such other information, documentation and clarifications that the Committee may require, the members of the Audit Committee (without the participation of the Audit Committee member(s) interested in the transaction, if any) may approve or disapprove such transaction(s), subject to such monetary or other limitations and conditions as the Committee may deem fit. In case of rejection, the Audit Committee shall give reasons and better alternatives. The Committee may convene, adjourn, re-convene and hold afresh such number of meetings as it may require in this regard.

5. Approval of Related Party Transactions shall be given only if it is determined by the Audit Committee that such transactions are:
- in (or not inconsistent with) the best interests of the Company and its shareholders; and
 - on terms that are fair and comparable to those that would be obtained in arm's length transactions with unrelated third parties.
 - within the threshold limits/ criteria approved by the Board of Directors.

The Committee shall have due regard to (i) the business and commercial rationale for the transaction; (ii) alternate options available with the Company; and (iii) the nature and extent of any interest, including any actual or potential conflict of interest of the management, Board members, key managerial personnel and shareholders.

7.2 Omnibus approval by Audit Committee

The Audit Committee would grant omnibus approval only if it is satisfied of the need of such approval and that it meets the criteria set out hereinabove (Para 6.1) for approval of Related Party Transactions.

The Audit Committee shall lay down the criteria for granting the omnibus approval in line with this Policy and such approval shall be applicable in respect of transactions which are repetitive in nature.

In the case of frequent / regular / repetitive transactions which are in the normal course of business of the Company, the Audit Committee may grant standing pre-approval / omnibus approval. While granting the approval, the Audit Committee shall satisfy itself of the need for the omnibus approval and that the same is in the interest of the Company.

Such omnibus approval shall specify:

- Name/s of the Related Party;
- Nature of transaction;
- Period of transaction;
- Maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into;
- The indicative base price/ current contracted price and formula for variation in price, if any;
- Other conditions which the Audit Committee deems fit.

The thresholds and limitations set forth by the Committee would have to be strictly complied with, and any variation thereto including to the price, value or material terms of the contract or arrangement shall require the prior approval of the Audit Committee. Further, Where the need for Related Party Transaction cannot be foreseen and the details as per above are not available, the Audit Committee can give omnibus approval for such transactions subject to their value not exceeding Rs. 1 crore per transaction.

The Audit Committee will review on a quarterly basis, the details of all related party transactions entered into by the Company pursuant to each of the omnibus approval given. Such omnibus approvals shall be valid for a period of not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approvals after expiry of one year. The Audit Committee will consider and review the omnibus approvals.

8 REVIEW / APPROVAL BY THE BOARD

In case any Related Party Transactions are referred by the Company to the Board for its approval due to the transaction being (i) not in the ordinary course of business, or (ii) not at an arm's length basis, the Board will inter alia consider factors such as, nature of the transaction, material terms, the manner of determining the pricing and the business rationale for entering into such transaction and any other information the Board may deem important/relevant for taking decision on a proposed transaction. On such consideration, the Board may approve the transaction or may require such modifications to transaction terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances. Any member of the Board who has any interest in any Related Party Transaction will recuse himself and abstain from discussion and voting on the approval of the Related Party Transaction.

9 APPROVAL OF SHAREHOLDERS

In following cases, Related Party Transactions shall be proposed to the shareholders of the Company for their approval by passing resolution:

- a. Material Transactions, as per provisions referred in this Policy; or
- b. When approval from the shareholders is mandatory as per applicable provision of the Act or applicable laws, in relation to transactions or matter relating to the Related Parties.

In case Board refers a related party transaction for seeking approval of the shareholders as per the provisions of Companies Act 2013 or otherwise, in such cases, if any member of company is a related party as per this policy, such member of the company shall not vote on resolution passed for approving such related party transaction.

10 RATIFICATION

- 10.1 Any Related Party Transaction entered into without obtaining the prior approval of the Audit/ Board/ Shareholders(respective authority/ies) may be ratified, subject to the applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Listing Regulations, if post review of the said transaction / contract, the appropriate authority is satisfied, that the said Related Party Transaction is not detrimental to the interest of the Company, however, the appropriate authority may also ratify such transaction or contracts, with or without the modification(s).
- 10.2 If the appropriate authority decides, not to approve a particular transaction, it may require the Related Party to reimburse the benefits which might have accrued to it and/ or indemnify the Company with regard to the subject Related Party Transaction which is not approved by the appropriate authority.
